

SALEM POLICE DEPARTMENT NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release – March 28, 2013

SALEM POLICE MAKE ADDITIONAL CHARGES IN CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CASE

On Wednesday, March 27, Dewayne Barger was served with four additional charges in relation to the Salem Police Department's ongoing child pornography investigation. Barger has been charged with four counts of Producing Child Pornography. These production charges are directly related to his previous Possessing Child Pornography charges that were placed during his arrest on March 22.

During the course of this investigation, Salem detectives have determined that the digital video recordings in question were made at his previous residence in the 1400 block of Red Lane Extension. It also has been determined that Barger resided at this residence between 2011 and 2012.

Barger is still being held without bond in the Roanoke County/Salem Jail. The investigation is ongoing.
